

DIRECTOR'S BIOGRAPHY

ELIZABETH UPTON

VISION QUEST PRODUCTIONS

Elizabeth is an award winning independent documentary filmmaker. She has Directed, Produced, Edited, and Filmed feature length documentaries, shorts, Public Service Announcements, commercials, non-profit projects, and has worked on productions across the US, in Romania, Guatemala, Honduras, and Mexico. Her documentaries have raised over $500,000 in relief aid for orphans in Romania and for women in the US that are getting out of jail and ready to make a new life for themselves.

Elizabeth has created films covering topics of local interest as well as Ecogeomorphology. Shot in the Grand Canyon, this documentary introduces the groundbreaking field of study involving all three disciplines of Ecology, Geology, and Biology. She has traveled to Romania and documented a program helping orphans, raising aid to buy facilities for them when they turn 18. She has helped the San Diego County department of Social Services recruit Foster parents through a series of Public Service Announcements that were broadcasted on PBS.
